Sharny is one of Australia's most seasoned and respected jazz musicians. Known for her compelling originals, arrangements and joyful stage presence.

Sharny has shared the stage with James Morrison, Galapagos Duck, Grace Knight, Vince Jones, George Washington, Emma Pask, British guitarist Martin Taylor and French Brazilian artist Tania Maria. She has recorded two duo albums with guitarist George Golla, been complimented for her musicianship by US jazz legends Ray Brown and James Moody, and won the APRA Award for her ABC originals album "A Good Thing on Hold". In 2017 she released and toured "Comes a Time", building a new fan base around the country; and the album has garnered stunning reviews. As a starting-out jazz artist in her early 20's in Adelaide, Sharny was constantly likened to Blossom Dearie. If you've never heard of Blossom Dearie, then you will know all about her by the end of this evening.

Nadira, a fresh face in Australian jazz circuit often dubbed as pocket rocket and in such a short time, she's known for her quirks, her wit, her warmth and her storytelling ability and connection with the audience. You know when she's up on stage, as she will hold you captured! The words got out it seems...as she SELLS OUT shows almost always wherever she goes.

She has performed at all Tasmanian Jazz Festivals and various festivals in VIC and WA. She performs regularly at jazz clubs, jazz venues and music venues in Tasmania, Victoria and Queensland.
