Club Nights

@Derwent Sailing Squadron

TUESDAY, 10 FEBRUARY

THE DAVE SQUIRES QUARTET

MUSIC STARTS AT 7.00PM

The Dave Squires Quartet delivers an engaging and stylish jazz experience, led by David Squires on guitar and vocals. Known for his warm tone, expressive phrasing, and relaxed vocal delivery, Squires brings a deep affection for the Great American Songbook to every performance. Joining him are the elegant and inventive Randal Muir on piano, whose thoughtful harmonies and lyrical solos add depth and sparkle to the music, Rick Caskey on bass, providing a steady, swinging foundation and melodic support throughout the evening, and Matt Apted on drums, whose subtle drive and dynamic pulse complete the rhythm section.

Together, the quartet explores classic tunes from the American Songbook—beloved standards made famous by the great jazz and crooner traditions—offering fresh interpretations that honour the originals while leaving room for improvisation and musical conversation. Audiences can expect a relaxed yet sophisticated performance filled with swinging rhythms, rich harmonies, intimate ballads, and moments of playful interaction between the musicians. This is straight-ahead jazz at its finest: timeless melodies, tasteful solos, and a sound that feels both familiar and alive.

TUESDAY, 10 MARCH

STAN MEETS CHET

MUSIC STARTS AT 7.00PM

Greg Stanton is an accomplished tenor saxophonist. Bradley Stow is not. He's a trumpeter. And a very good one at that. But together they are going to bring the magic of West Coast Cool Jazz to the Hobart Jazz Club.

Greg has always liked the playing of Stan Getz, even so far as to consider a name change to Stan Gregton. Bradley has always been inspired by the playing of Chet Baker, among others. Together, Greg and Bradley conceived the idea of channeling two jazz greats into the same room. Funnily enough, the real Stan and Chet only played on one album together. In fact, they couldn't stand each other. So for club night, Greg and Bradley are going to bring that animosity, dynamics, improvisational fervour and Cool Jazz to the stage with a collection of standards from the lives of Stan Getz and Chet Baker.

They will be accompanied by a fantastic backing band consisting of well-known faces.
